

Mr. Sprigg, chairman of the committee on the currency, delivered a report, accompanied with a bill, entitled, an act for the better regulation of the banking institutions of the State.

[See printed pamphlet U.]

Which was read the first time,—and

On motion of Mr. Ely, read a second time by special order;

Mr. Williams then offered as a substitute for said report, the following, being a bill, entitled, an act for the better regulation of moneyed corporations.

[See printed pamphlet V.]

Which was read.

On motion of Mr. Ely, said report and substitute were laid on the table, and made the order of the day for Tuesday next, the 20th inst.

Mr. Ford submitted the following order—

Ordered, that two thousand copies of the report and bill of the committee on the currency be printed for the use of this house,

Which was twice read.

Mr. Ely offered as a substitute for said order the following—

Ordered, that five hundred and eighty-five copies of the report and bill of the committee on the currency, and substitute therefor, be printed for the use of the legislature.

Which was read.

On the question being put—will the house adopt said substitute?

It was resolved in the affirmative.

The said order was then read the second time and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Carpinter, the house took up for consideration the bill, entitled, an act to incorporate "The Carroll White Sulphur Spring Company" in Allegany county.

On motion of Mr. Carpinter, said bill was recommitted.

Mr. Bowie, chairman of the committee on grievances and courts of justice, made an unfavorable report upon the bill reported by Mr. Williams, entitled, an act to extend the rights of married women,

Which was read the first and by a special order the second time.

On motion of Mr. Williams, said report and bill were laid on the table, and made the order of the day for Monday next, 19th inst.

Mr. Bowie, chairman of the committee on grievances and courts of justice, made an unfavorable report upon the bill reported by Mr. Alexander, entitled, an act relating to mortgages;

Also, an unfavorable report upon the bill from the senate, entitled, an act to alter, repeal, and abolish all that part of the constitution and form of government which inhibits the senate from amending a money bill,

Which were severally read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Bowie, chairman of the committee on grievances and courts of justice, made a favorable report upon the bill from the senate, entitled, a supplement to an act, entitled, an act for the better regula-
